RE: Congressman John J. Duncan, Jr.

Dear Jonathan:

Pursuant to your request of June 14, 1993, we are providing the following additional information regarding Duncan for Congress, Inc.

The old committee, Duncan for Congress will be terminated upon the incorporation of Duncan for Congress, Inc. and a Statement of Termination will be filed with the Federal Election Commission at that time, together with Statements of Organization and Candidacy for the new incorporated committee.

Duncan for Congress, Inc. will be a political organization as defined in 26 USCS §527, copy of which is enclosed, and, therefore is exempt from income taxes for the purpose of any law which refers to organizations exempt from income taxes. However, to clarify the statement made in our letter dated June 3, 1993, that the corporation would not be tax exempt, the committee does pay taxes on any investment income earned in accordance with §527.

Should you have any questions or need additional information, please feel free to call.

Best personal regards,

James H. London
